Insurance Coverage

NYU provides Production Insurance for curricular student films. Access and application procedures vary by class. Read on for details of coverage, and what to do in the event of an accident or loss.

Eligibility: Production Insurance is available for matriculated Film/TV students enrolled in Production Classes, and with Production Approval from the Instructor and Production Adviser. Insurance is also available for students to fulfill an incomplete from a prior production class.

Term: Insurance coverage is valid for the duration of the shoot for which the Production is registered. Re-shoots, pick-up shoots, and other secondary photography
