Overview

SAG-AFTRA is a union for actors and other performers, including stunt coordinators. They represent their performers through collective bargaining agreements and have strict eligibility requirements, ensuring that their members are highly skilled and experienced. To work with union performers, you will need to become a signatory to an agreement and follow all of the union's policies. Becoming a signatory provides access to performers in the SAG-AFTRA and Actors' Equity guilds.

The student-friendly agreements outlined below allow the performers' salaries to be
