Budget Narrative

Overview

A budget narrative is a justification for each cost associated with your film. Please use this as an example of how to write one when applying for a NYC Film Office Permit Waiver. If you need assistance writing one, please contact production.office@nyu.edu

Budget Narrative - "The Perfect Film"

Budget Narrative:

Talent $0- $250

We cast union actors under the SAG student agreement with the deferred rate of $125/day + payroll fringes. They will work (1) 8 hour day on set with us. "Deferred pay" means that the SAG contract only requires they be paid if the film is distributed."
