COLLABORATIVE & OPEN ARTS

Basic Production Safety Guidelines for Media Productions

Questions - Consult your instructor or email wlt2001@nyu.edu

If you are taking a Tisch Collaborative Arts or Open Arts course that involves the use of video and/or audio recording, for the purposes of documenting public activity and/or recording actors in staged scenes, you must adhere to the following NYU Basic Production Safety Guidelines.

Please read this document and then sign the Collaborative Arts/Open Arts google signature approval form to acknowledge that you have read and understand all of the information contained herein.

Students who fail to comply with the following requirements will participate in an Academic Review, and are subject to disciplinary consequences within the school, and any appropriate governing bodies regarding federal or state laws.

General Health & Safety Requirements

On May 11, 2023 NYU ended the vaccination requirement and is no longer requiring student productions to collect vaccination information. Students should continue to follow the guidance available on the NYU Returns page.

For On Campus Productions/Exercises

Any actor or crew member who is not a current student or employee is considered a visitor, vendor, or affiliate. NYU alumni are also considered visitors.

To participate in a production on campus:

- All visitors, vendors, and affiliates must be sponsored in VEOCI by a current NYU employee, faculty member, or student. Sponsors should follow the steps in the Sponsor Requirements
