Filming in Residence Halls

Specified common spaces in NYU residence halls may be reserved for filming academic assignments according to the procedures outlined below. The spaces are not available to individuals, groups, or organizations unaffiliated with the University or for projects unrelated to approved academic courses. It is not required that you live in Residence Halls to utilize these spaces. These are the spaces available.

To Request Space:

- Fill out the Residence Hall Filming Space Application
 - Expect responses to take up to three business days. We recommend applying one week in advance of the date you need for filming.
- Within 3 business days, you should receive an email from a residence hall manager confirming or denying the reservation request. Please reach out to the residence hall you reserved if you have not received an approval or denial within 3 business days.
- If you receive approval and are not a resident of the respective building, you will need to coordinate Visitor Access to the building through the following
